

SOCIAL AND OTHER INTERESTS OF WOMEN

Society

Mrs. Henry Webb Johnson and daughter, Miss Sadie Johnson, were complimented Thursday afternoon with a reception by their hostess, Mrs. Elmer Crockett, 627 W. Colfax av. Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Emmons, 830 St. Clair st., will entertain at dinner for them.

The reception in the afternoon was for 80 guests, the greater number of whom were friends of the honor guests during their residence in South Bend. The house was gracefully arranged with chrysanthemums which also formed the centerpiece at the table from which tea was served.

The appointments at the dinner in the evening will be in yellow and white. The centerpiece and guest favors will be chrysanthemums. Covers will be placed for eight.

Mrs. J. M. Studebaker, sr., gave the second of her luncheons for out-of-town guests at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The table was exquisitely appointed, the centerpiece being an artistic arrangement of purple salvia and pink roses, which likewise formed the favors for the honor guests, who were Mrs. Charles Bowman of Toledo, house guest of Mrs. Geo. E. Keller; Mrs. G. Stanley Mitchell of Milwaukee, guest of Mrs. Wallace Dodge of Mishawaka, and Mrs. F. A. Taylor of Boston, guest of Mrs. W. B. Ponce. Covers were placed for 14.

Mrs. Bernard Myers of Ellettsville entertained a small party at the Orpheum Thursday afternoon followed by tea at the Robertson as a courtesy to Mrs. Marion Morgan, house guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Morgan. The musical program for family night at the Commercial Athletic club Friday evening will be as follows: Vocal solo, Mrs. Grace Pitts Davis; violin solo, Mrs. Harry Knott, accompanied by George Herrick; reading, Miss Leona Turner; piano solo, Miss Elizabeth Windell; vocal solo, Mrs. Roddy. Refreshments will follow the program and the remainder of the evening will be spent in dancing.

A wedding of interest to a large circle of friends took place Wednesday evening when Miss Nettie Muesel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Muesel, 619 Vista av., became the bride of D. Sherman Ellison of South Bend, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ellison of Anderson, Ind. The ceremony took place at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. George Watson, Henry, pastor of the First Christian church officiating. The only attendant was Miss Elma Rose Silors, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Silors of Kokomo, who carried the ring in a lily. The wedding, though simple, was very beautiful, a color scheme of yellow and white having been preserved throughout. The bay window in the living room where the ceremony was performed, was banked with palms and ferns and festooned with southern smilax. Clusters of yellow and white chrysanthemums were interspersed with the greenery. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white charmeuse satin made with a wattleau back caught at the shoulders with a pearl ornament and falling in a short train. The bodice was draped with shadow lace and pointed pinnars of the same fell fastened with lilies of the valley and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. For the entrance of the bride party, Miss Frances Harrington played the wedding march from Lohengrin and during the ceremony she played "A Perfect Day" and Mendelssohn's wedding march for the recessional.

A reception for 100 guests followed the ceremony. The table in the dining room from which a buffet supper was served, was adorned with an empire basket of yellow and white pompon chrysanthemums. Among the guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ellison, Alfred Ellison, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. T. Scott, Harold Jones, all from Anderson; Mr. and Mrs. George Silors of Kokomo; R. E. Scott, of Muncie; Charles L. Craig of Indianapolis; E. S. Boumann, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Goodhart, C. A. Miller and Oscar Berger of Chicago.

Later in the evening the young couple left for a two weeks' wedding trip to Baltimore, Md., and other eastern points. They will be at home in December in their beautiful new home, 1227 Vista av. The bride's going away gown was a chic suit of black velvet with seal furs and a seal

BOUDOIR CAP AND SLIPPERS ARE ACCEPTABLE CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR DOWRY BOX OF BRIDE-TO-BE

For the dowry box of the girl who is to be married in the spring a beautiful Christmas offering can be made.

Buy some inner soles and sew pink ribbon about four inches wide around them, closing at the back with an over-hand seam. On the upper edge of this ribbon, about a half inch from the top, make a small tuck that you run in a rubber cord that will draw up the ribbon to the foot.

On the toe put a blue daisy, made from loops of pale blue baby ribbon, with a flat yellow button in the center.

For the cap use a piece of net a quarter of a yard wide and a yard long. Put a tuck in it in the middle and run in pink ribbon and gather all together at the top and put on a pink ribbon bow. About the outer edge of the cap make a hem in which you can run white rubber cord and draw it down to fit your head.

Now hem a piece of white net two inches wide and a yard and a quarter long. Gather this onto the edge of the cap and put the blue ribbon daisies made of baby ribbon with the flat yellow button centers at intervals.

The pink ribbon strings have the blue daisies at the ends.

toque trimmed with a bird of paradise and a touch of ermine.

MENU JUDGES ARE SELECTED

Three Women Will Decide Which Menu is Best Adapted for Thanksgiving.

Mrs. E. J. Kettinger, Mrs. Homer J. Miller, and Mrs. Joseph E. Williams, all of them prominent club women and interested in the work that the public schools are doing for girls, will act as judges in the menu contest which the News-Times has arranged for the pupils in Miss Hillier's domestic science classes in the high school.

The judges will meet in the News-Times office Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock and go through the menus submitted by the girls. As announced yesterday the girls will arrange menus for a Thanksgiving dinner with an itemized list of the cost attached to them.

The judges will consider them from the point of view of appropriateness and economy, both to receive equal consideration. The prize winning menus and others that the judges consider especially good will be printed in the Sunday morning edition of the News-Times.

All of the menus should be in the office of the News-Times shortly after noon on Friday. Those received later than 4 o'clock cannot be considered.

The prizes are $2 for the best menu, $1 for the second best, and 50 cents for the third.

EIGHTY WOMEN AIDED BY LOCAL ASSOCIATION

Several Committees Appointed and Reports Read at Florence Crittenden Circle Meeting.

Several committees were appointed Wednesday afternoon at the meeting of the Florence Crittenden circle at the home of Mrs. J. C. Cleis, 114 E. Marion st. Other business was transacted and the meeting closed with an excellent address on rescue work in South Bend given by Rev. F. K. Dougherty, pastor of Grace M. E. church.

The need for rescue work in the city and the value of that done by the Crittenden circle was dwelt upon by the speaker, who also urged the single standard of morals.

The summary of the work of the league since its organization in 1910 which was sent to the conference of Charities and Corrections just closed in Gary, was presented at the meeting, showing a growth in that time from a membership of 12 to 93. Eighty girls have been befriended by the organization and 375 expended in the work.

The following committees were appointed: Rescue, Mrs. R. O. Cotton, chairman, Miss Nellie Anderson, Mrs. C. C. Boyer and Mrs. Maude Stonecipher; program, Mrs. Emil Reyer, chairman, Miss Alice Creed and Mrs. Stonecipher; press, Mrs. Myron Campbell, Mrs. William Shontz and Mrs. Beyrer.

***** ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S LEMON-CUSTARD PIE *****

In celebration of the 50th anniversary of the deliverance by Abraham Lincoln of his immortal Gettysburg address, Mrs. Nancy Breedlove, 80, is giving a "Lincoln party" at her home in Owosso, Mich., today.

The "piece de resistance" will be lemon-custard pie—the kind she used to bake for Abraham Lincoln and the recipe for which was always followed by the white house chefs after the great man ascended to the presidency.

Mrs. Breedlove used to keep a hotel in Illinois in her younger days and "Honest Abe," as they all called Lincoln then, stayed there three weeks at a time, when engaged in court trials.

He liked Mrs. Breedlove's lemon-custard pie so well that she had to write out the recipe for him and he told her years after that it was the favorite white house dessert.

Here's the recipe, written out eschself—and never before printed: ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S LEMON-CUSTARD PIE.

Two-thirds of a cup of water, one teaspoon of sugar, the yolks of three or four eggs; grated rind and juice of one lemon; one tablespoonful of cornstarch; fill a pie shell and bake in a hot oven. Beat up the whites of the eggs separately to a stiff froth, mix in three tablespoonfuls of sugar and spread over pie. Bake to a nice brown.

DR. THOMSON'S EYE TALK

(TALK NO. 202.)

Two Results.

The object of glasses is to make your eyes comfortable and your vision clear. If you have glasses that are restful but do not give you distinct vision they do not fit you. If you see well but the eyes soon tire they are not the glasses you ought to wear. One effect is as important as the other. Glasses which are fitted by exact measurements will give you both. You will see well and see easily. Your eyes will be rested and strengthened. Objects will appear bright and clear. My business is to fit glasses by scientific methods. I take the measurements of each eye separately and furnish glasses that will correct every defect. If your glasses are not right bring them in and I will show you what you ought to wear. I make no charge for examination.
